WHO SHALL THROW IT? EINSTEIN SEES REALITY. CHEERFUL SPOTS,

-By Arthur Brisbane-(Copyright 1980 By King Features Fyndicate, Inc.)

A busy day in the world of news. Europe reports that the revolt in Spain, as anticipated, has become extremely dangerous. A president is named, to take the place of the king, and rebels against the government include Spanish army flying machines.

The remarkable king of Spain takes all this cooly, not disturbed, apparently, by the fact that, already, eight separate attempts have been made to assassinate him. He says he will run for president if his people really want a republic.

Chinese communists in captured dties have massacred entire populations or as many as could not hide or run away. Tens of thousands are supposed to have been cut down in cold blocd. Such is the old fashioned method

AL CAPONE AID IS ARRESTED ON DOAK WARRANT

Tony "Mops" Volpe, Bodyguard, Now Facing Deportation

(By Associated Press) ment has stepped into the fight to rid Chicago of its gangster element

'Tony "Mops" Volpe, bodyguard for Alphonse Capone and ranked by the Chicago crime commission as second only to Capone as a "public enemy" was the first subject of attack. His deportation to Italy as an undesirable alien was sought. Held in $10,000 Bond

Arrested last night by immigration authorities on a warrant issued by Secretary of Labor William N. Doak, Volpe was taken to the detective bureau and held in $10,000 bond, despite his protest of American citizenship. Almost simultaneously a report became current that the activities of a score of alien gangsters were under surveillance of immigration authorities.

An old charge—Volpe's conviction in 1925, in connection with a $1, 000,000 counterfeit war savings stamp plot-was made the basis for the warrant. Volpe, who came t America when 15 years old, was naturalized a few years later, but the governmen charged he had made false statements in his application for citizenship. The papers were subequently revoked. He served a short erm for his alleged part in the savings stamp case.
Others in Jail

Local officials were recently successful in returning to prison George "Red" Barker, alleged labor racketeer, and James "Fur" Sammons for alleged offenses which occurred years ago. Local agents of the immigration bureau predicted that within another month Volpe would

We wish to make an announcement to the connoisseurs of good meat in Salem that will be very pleasing to them. Through the cooperation of Armour & Co. we have been fortunate to secure for our customers one of the prize winning steers exhibited at the Chicago livestock show. We will sell this meat at no advance over our regular prices, thus giving our trade the opportunity of judging the quality of the meat that we sell at all times. We know that our regular customers will not notice any change in quality, but we also know that those who try this, who have been buying inferior beef, at the same price, will notice the difference and we will gain a new customer, which is just why we do this! The prize winning blue ribbon will be on display in our window.

Rev. S. A. Mayer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, guest speaker at a meeting of the Book club Monday afternoon at Memorial building, complimented the club on its organization. He said "Books are our greatest blessing." He pointed out that through books we can associate with the greatest men and women of all times.

Rev. Mayer brought with him a copy of Sistnie's Madonna painted by Raphael. Paintings of the Ma-donna formed the nucleus for his interesting talk. He paid a tribute to mothers and babies. He stated that to him all babies are "divine with possibilities," and he read George MacDonald's poem Baby.

The speaker reviewed some of the history of this particular kind of art, relating to the period between the fifth hand 16th centuries

Development of the Church in the United States" was discussed by Mrs. G D. Keister. She brought out that there are 128 religious bodies in the United States with a membership of 50,000,000.

The Book club quartet, composed of Mrs. Keister, Mrs. Irving Megrail, Mrs. Wilbur Glass and Mrs. Ralph Snyder, sang two Christmas songs, with Mrs. V. L. Battin at the piano. secretaries are leading double lives in the very best families

With a nonchalance that even a Murad would envy, secretaries in the very best living rooms are these days condealing everything from the family linens to baby's toys —and feeling quite virtuous about it, thank you! Book ish above, their lower depths hide everything from bridge scores to the golf balls. Or, if it's a small apartment with in-a-door beds and things aren't everything they seem, your secretary will probably have the 'best' dishes hid away in its upper recesses, while down below is the "no-man's land" of sewing things and such.

And with it all, with all the practicality ,there's that real dignity and decorativeness-the tremendous relief of a tall-towering piece of furniture against a roomful of low chairs and davenports. And so, because secretaries are so useful and fashionable and all but indispensable, Cope's have a whole regiment of them, in all sizes and a choice of finishes. Prices on good secretaries were never lower than they are offered here, in fact we are out here to make lowest prices possible for you. See our stock of these secretaries ranging from $38.50 to $95.00. They make ideal gifts.

While we are at it, we may as well tell you that we have one handsome line of desks in all styles. They would make a whiz of a present for someone. The selections are so complete that you are bound to find one that will fit your mental picture of what a desk should be. In case that you might be interested we will tell you that prices start at $29.50.

In some of the old with the other decorations of the farmhouses, the mantel served some room is always a safe and useful real use. It was a substantial shelf mantel-shelf ornament. In no case to hold mugs and bowls in frequent need there be lavish decoration—a use. (The so-called Toby mugs are mantelshelf is as easy to clutter up now in fashion again, and they as a whatnot! stand on many a modern mantelshelf, grinning good-naturedly. But, TIPTON, Ia.—The co-ed of 1930 they stand as ornaments purely— is fundamentally the same as the their days of service as mug or co-ed of 1864, in the opinion of pitcher are gone).

fashion. All the specimens of zero and jungle are represented and one collector has carefully gathered together, over the course of years and says, "may revel in new freedom, but far journeys, a beautiful array of ivory animals, small and large, have a home and children and rear Toads and tigers, cats and camels, and elephants—many elephants of various sizes—are included in the group which forms a solemn procession across the mantel. More like toys than formal decorations, but charming withal.

The toy-spirit seems to have crept into this particular type of decora-tion anyway. Small replicas of ships, stage-coaches, covered wagons tepees, ancient sedan chairs, are among the season's novelties for mantel-piece decorations. (And don't blame the visiting children who make a delighted and disconcerting pounce on these objects!)

Quaint maps, hung over the mantel sometimes take the place of other decorations. Maps of cities, or pleasant sections, some very colorful, make a delightful decoration over the fireplace. And then there's only room on the shelf for the inevitable

FIRE INSURANCE O LOW PRICES

EW have a true appreciation of the far-reaching effect of Stock Fire Insurance in holding down the cost of all merchandise.

No less authority than the Encyclopedia Britannica contributes a "testimonial" as follows:

> "In the United States, as in no other country, has insurance in all its various phases become universally recognized as an essential of commerce and industry. To this fact may be attributed in large measure the achievements of America in business enterprises.

"Insurance encourages men and corporations to hazard their resources on new developments without fear of loss from natural and unavoidable catastrophes."

At every step in the processing and distributing of materials-storage, manufacturing, transportation, wholesaling, retailing the protection of Stock Fire Insurance contributes that indispensable element of certainty without loading prices for speculative risk.

AL CAPONE AID IS ARRESTED ON

Tony "Mops" Volpe, Body-guard, Now Facing Deportation

(By Associated Press) CHICAGO, Dec. 16—The govern-ment has stepped into the fight to rid Chicago of its gangster element. Tony "Mops" Volpe, bodyguard for Alphonse Capone and ranked by the Chicago crime commission as second only to Capone as a "pub-lic enemy" was the first subject of attack. His deportation to Italy a Held in $10,000 Bond

Arrested last night by immigra tion authorities on a warrant is sued by Secretary of Labor William N. Doak. Volpe was taken to the detective bureau and held in $10,000 bond, despite his protest of American citizenship. Almost simultaneously a report became current that the activities of a score of alien gangsters were under surveillance of immigration authorities.

An old charge-Volpe's conviction in 1925, in connection with a $1. 000,000 counterfeit war savings stamp plot—was made the basis for the warrant. Volpe, who came America when 15 years old, was na-turalized a few years later, but the governmen charged he had made false statements in his application for citizenship. The papers were subuently revoked. He served a short rm for his alleged part in the ir savings stamp case.

Blue Ribbon Beef

We wish to make an announcement to the connoisseurs of good meat in Salem that will be very pleasing to them. Through the cooperation of Armour & Co. we have been fortunate to secure for our customers one of the prize winning steers exhibited at the Chicago livestock show. We will sell this meat at no advance over our regular prices, thus giving our trade the opportunity of judging the quality of the meat that we sell at all times. We know that our regular customers will not notice any change in quality, but we also know that those who try this, who have been buying inferior beef, at the same price, will notice the difference and we will gain a new customer, which is just why we do this! The prize winning blue ribbon will be on display in our window.

Mayer, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, guest speaker at a meeting of the Book speaker at a meeting of the Book club Monday afternoon at Memorial building, complimented the club on its organization. He said "Books are our greatest blessing." He pointed out that through books we can associate with the greatest men and women of all times."

Rev. Mayer brought with him a copy of Sistnle's Madonna painted by Raphael. Paintings of the Madonna formed the nucleus for his interesting talk. He paid a tribute to mothers and bables. He stated that to him all bables are "divine with possibilities," and he read George MacDonald's poem on

The speaker reviewed some of the history of this particular kind of art, relating to the period between the fifth hand 16th centuries.
"Development of the Church in the United States" was discussed by Mrs. G D. Keister. She brought out that there are 128 religious bodies in the United States with a membership of 50,000,000.

The Book club quartet, composed of Mrs. Keister, Mrs. Irving Megrail, Mrs. Wilbur Glass and Mrs. Ralph Snyder, sang two Christmas songs, with Mrs. V. L. Battin at the piano. The quartet also led the club in Christmas carols. George Votaw contributed a Christmas story. The roll call response was "Christmas Quotations."

FRANCE'S HOPE FOR POINCAIRE RECOVERY DIMS

Statesman Is Critically III With Partial Paralysis

PARIS, Dec. 16.-Considerable anxiety was felt today for Raymond Poincaire, French statesman, who is riously ill with a partial paralysis his home here.

Condition Critical Se critical is his condition that re-ports current in Paris today that he had died occasioned no great aston-ishment, although bringing forth many expressions of grief. Investi-gation established that the reports were incorrect, and friends were even assured there had been a slight improvement in his condition. However, no great hope for his recovery was expressed and M. Tar-dieu, his disciple and protege, who his home early this forenoon told newspapermen waiting outside, "his condition is grave."

Affected By Paralysis In describing his illness the Paris press uses the expression hemiplegia, that is, a paralysis which affects one lateral half of the body When M. Poincaire was first at tacked Saturday there were evidences that a small vein connecting the brain was rupturing but Dr. Boiden relieved his patient by secretaries are leading double lives in the very best families taries in the very best living rooms are these days condealing everything from the family linens to baby's toys -and feeling quite virtuous about it, thank you! Bools ish above, their lower depths hide everything from bridge scores to the golf balls. Or, if it's a small apartment with in-a-door beds and things aren't everything they seem, your secretary will probably have the 'best' dishes hid away in its upper recesses, while down below is the "no-man's land" of sewing things and such.

dignity and decorativeness-the tremendous relief of a tall-towering piece of furniture against a roomful of low chairs and davenports. And so, because secretaries are so useful and fashionable and all but indispensable, Cope's have a whole regiment of them, in all sizes and a choice of finishes. Prices on good secretaries were never lower than they are offered here, in fact we are out here to make lowest prices possible for you. See our stock of these secretaries ranging from $38.50 to $95.00. They make ideal gifts.

While we are at it, we may as well tell you that we have one handsome line of desks in all styles. They would make a whiz of a present for someone. The selections are so complete that you are bound to find one that will fit your mental picture of what a desk should be. In case that you might be interested we will tell you that prices start at $29.50.

All the specimens of zoo! and jungle are represented and one collector has carefully gathered to-gether, over the course of years and far journeys, a beautiful array of ivory animals, small and large. Toads and tigers, cats and camels, and elephants—many elephants of various sizes-are included in the group which forms a solemn procession across the mantel. More like toys than formal decorations, but charming withal.

The toy-spirit seems to have crept into this particular type of decora-tion anyway. Small replicas of ships, stage-coaches, covered wagons tepees, ancient sedan chairs, are mantel-piece decorations. (And don't blame the visiting children who make a delighted and disconcerting

Quaint maps, hung over the mantel sometimes take the place of other decorations. Maps of cities, or pleas-ant sections, some very colorful, make a delightful decoration over the fireplace. And then there's only room on the shelf for the inevitable

TIRE INSURANCE O LOW PRICES

EW have a true appreciation of the far-reaching effect of Stock Fire Insurance in holding down the cost of all merchandise.

No less authority than the Encyclopedia Britannica contributes a "testimonial" as follows:

> "In the United States, as in no other country, has insurance in all its various phases become universally recognized as an essential of commerce and industry. To this fact may be attributed in large measure the achievements of America in business enterprises.

"Insurance encourages men and corporations to hazard their resources on new developments without fear of loss from natural and unavoidable catastrophes."

At every step in the processing and distributing of materials-storage, manufacturing, transportation, wholesaling, retailing the protection of Stock Fire Insurance contributes that indispensable element of certainty without loading prices for speculative risk.
